

Abstract of the Disclosure

Process and system for investing in private portfolio includes determining relative risk, excess return and correlation of a private investment portfolio to a public market.